(a) Cornell shall own all data, information, and other work developed or obtained by supplier ("supplier" within the terms of this paragraph) pursuant to this business award unless otherwise specified as part of proposal.

(b) Cornell shall at all times have access to review the ongoing work of supplier for purposes of determining that work is being performed in accordance with the terms of this agreement.

(c) Immediately upon termination of this agreement for any reason, all such data, information, and other work, in whatever form, shall be turned over to Cornell.

(d) For purposes of this agreement, any copyrightable work ("Work") developed in the course of performance under this business award shall be deemed 'Work made for hire' under federal copyright law and all ownership rights to such Work belong to Cornell.

(e) Should such Work not constitute a 'Work made for hire' under copyright law, supplier hereby grants, transfers, assigns, and conveys to Cornell and its successors and assigns, the entire right, title, and interest in the Work or any part thereof, including but not limited to the right to reproduce, prepare derivative works, distribute by sale, license or other transfer, to perform publicly, to display and to secure copyrights or patents and renewals, reissues, and extensions of any such copyrights or patents in the United States of America or any foreign country.

(f) Any patentable invention conceived or reduced to practice in the course of performance under this agreement shall be the property of Cornell.

(g) Whether a copyright or patent in the Work will be maintained or registered in the United States of America or any foreign country shall be at the sole discretion of Cornell.

(h) Supplier agrees to cooperate fully with Cornell in the preparation and execution of all documents necessary or incidental to this assignment and the protection and preservation of rights herein granted to Cornell.
