4-H DOG OBEDIENCE 2015

Cornell Cooperative Extension Cayuga County is Hosting 4-H Dog Obedience Course for
Enrolled Cayuga County 4-H Junior and Senior Members
(Not available for cloverbud youth)

- PARENT or GUARDIAN must attend and stay for all classes, regardless of the youth’s age.
- Dogs must be at least 6 months of age and controllable in order to be used in dog obedience classes. This will be determined at the discretion of the instructor and/or 4-H Educator.
- CLASSES START: Thursday, May 7th in the evening.
- PRE-REGISTRATION & PAYMENT to: CCE Cayuga County is Required by April 23rd
  - COST: $20 per youth/dog combination. For example, if you have (2) dogs participating in the program, then the fee would be $40.
- Members will be divided into appropriate class-levels based on age and experience.
- BEGINNER MEMBERS:
  - All brand-new dog obedience participants are required to do a “meet and greet” on Thursday, April 30th.
  - New Members will be scheduled for an appointment to come have their dog evaluated for controllability and to get fitted for a leash and collar. This appointment will take approximately 15 minutes.
  - If you need a PROPER leash and collar you will be responsible for this additional cost. Plan on about $15 dollars total for these 2 items.
- ALL CLASSES HELD at: Cornell Cooperative Extension Office, 248 Grant Ave, Auburn, NY 13021.
- CLASS TIMES: Tentatively: Beginner 6:30-7:15; Advanced 7:30-8:15
- Youth are REQUIRED to attend all dog obedience classes, unless there is a family emergency or illness.
  - As such, if a youth misses more than 3 classes, they will not be eligible to graduate from the course.
- TO REGISTER or FOR QUESTIONS Please Call: Cornell Cooperative Extension Cayuga County, 315-255-1183 or Email Peggy: psb4@cornell.edu
- ALL PARTICIPANTS MUST PROVIDE A COPY TO THE OFFICE: up-to-date rabies vaccination paperwork and show proof of recent shot records at the time of registration.