Farm Animal Safety and Management Training

March 12-13, 2018
Alfred State College

Opening session and meals held in the Central Dining Hall
Allegany Room

Program will be a blend of hands-on activities,
and interactive classroom instruction.

What to bring:

We will be working with livestock so please bring clothing that you don't mind getting dirty in. We ask that you clean any coveralls or outerwear that you may have used in or around livestock and poultry as well as bringing footwear that can be cleaned and sanitized for biosecurity purposes.

Accommodations are available for service animals. Please inform us of your needs. There may be some limitations to assure safety of participants, service animals and livestock

Hotel Accommodation's

You will need to contact directly: Saxon Inn on the Alfred University Campus (607) 587-8734. Let them know you are attending the Farm Animal Safety & Management Training – they are able to accommodate service dogs.
