

Coming up tomorrow! Please join us for this online workshop to learn how to find and use federal programs to support your farm or food business.

Federal Funding Opportunities for Farmers
Wednesday, March 10 @ 12:30pm Eastern

This workshop will introduce you to designing projects; finding federal grant opportunities to support them; and learning basic grant-writing do's and don'ts. It is designed to help people unfamiliar with grant-writing realize how many important skills they already have that will help them write successful grant proposals. Our presenter is Margaret Krome, an experienced grant writer with the Michael Fields Agricultural Institute in Wisconsin. > Register

Once you register, please also download the materials you'll need for this workshop and take our quick pre-webinar survey to help us tailor the workshop to meet your needs on FACT's Federal Funding Webinar webpage.

Best wishes and kind regards,
