An unforgettable exposure to the production and management of horses.

Do you desire a career that involves equine? AWESOME Equine 101 will expose you to many aspects of the equine science industry. Find your niche while becoming a temporary college student.

Scientific principles presented in a concise and easy to understand format for the 4-H high school aged equine enthusiast.

This program is made possible from the Agriculture and New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund.
AWESOME Equine 101 4-H Camp Student Schedule

Friday, June 3, 2016
8:00-8:30 a.m. Registration at dorms (adults bringing youth will take them to the horse barns following drop off of personal items)
9:00 Welcome & Orientation to AWESOME Equine 101
10:30 Tract I—English or Western
12:30 Lunch Break
1:00 Veterinarian Presentation
4:00 Travel to Farm Fest
5:00 Farm Fest/Dinner Included
7:00 Travel to Ag Center
8:00 Ice Cream Social
8:30 Basketball/Volleyball at Hamilton Hall
10:30 Lights Out

Saturday, June 4, 2016
7:00 Breakfast in cafeteria
8:30 Tract II  Racing or Draft/Driving
11:00 Rehab Center
12:30 Lunch
1:00 Therapeutic Horsemanship
2:30 Finical Aid Workshop
3:30 Wrap up of event & evaluations
4:00 Checkout from dorms

What to Bring:
- Bedding (including sleeping bag or sheets, pillow, and blanket)
- Towel and washcloth
- Helmet
- Proper Footwear  (heeled boots as required by the NYS 4-H Horse Program Rule Book)
- Proper Outerwear (no sleeveless shirts, jacket for evening activities)
- Personal items as necessary

For more information contact:
Alycia Schick
CCE Madison County
100 Eaton Street
Morrisville, NY 13408
Student Fee:  $100
Chaperone Fee:  $75
Online Registration:
https://reg.cce.cornell.edu/2016EquineAndDairy101_221
Register by May 13