Maple tubing is used by many maple producers to bring the sap fresh from the tree to the sugar house for boiling.

Find your way through the tree maze into the bucket.

Like in this maze, maple trees have growth rings each year that tell how old the tree is, the maze would represent a tree nine years old (count the rings). Real maple trees are between 35 and 70 years old when they are finally big enough (10 inches in diameter) to tap for sap.
