Financial Irregularities

Financial irregularities may be criminal acts and subject to prosecution under the law. The university must safeguard its assets and protect its funds from theft and misappropriation. All members of the Cornell University community have a responsibility to report known or suspected financial irregularities. The Financial Irregularities Policy, available on the University Policy Office website, provides information on the proper procedures that should be followed to report known or suspected irregularities and to achieve confidentiality and consistency (https://www.dfa.cornell.edu/dfa/sites/default/files/policy/vol3_6.pdf).