

Political Process

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees in 1970 adopted a statement of policy setting forth the elements of an appropriate relationship between Cornell University and those political activities in which the university's students, faculty and staff may become involved either on or off campus. Its purpose is to preserve the impartial status of the university as an educational institution (vis-a-vis particular political causes or candidates) while providing maximum freedom of thought and action to individuals. The details of this policy are available in the Office of the University Counsel.
