

Public Service Center

The Public Service Center (www.psc.cornell.edu) provides students with opportunities to be involved with community service locally, nationally, and internationally. Information is available on project funding, volunteer and internship opportunities, service-learning courses, and opportunities to engage in promoting leadership development and social change. Resources for faculty, including funding (see Faculty Fellows in Service) are available for the development of service learning courses and civic projects.