

Workforce Diversity and Inclusion

The Office of Workforce Diversity and Inclusion is dedicated to working with Cornell University colleges, departments, and units to create and promote a respectful, inclusive and diverse community that supports equal opportunity and affirmative action laws and regulations, as well as assisting faculty and academic staff with work/life and work/family issues.

The office is committed to carrying out the goals, objectives and responsibilities of the University's Affirmative Action Statement, the Institutional Statement on Diversity and Inclusiveness, and the staff Policy on Flexibility in the Workplace. For further information, please access their website at <http://www.ohr.cornell.edu/worklife/>.