

Language Portfolio – Cornell University Version German Studies Language Portfolio GERST 1220

Self-assessment checklist

(adapted from the Swiss Version of the European Language Portfolio) These checklists are based on the common reference levels elaborated in the Common European Framework (http://www.goethe.de/z/50/commeuro/) and on the reference levels for German as a Foreign Language elaborated in Profile deutsch http://www.goethe.de/z/52/profile.htm).

The Swiss ELP (European Language Portfolio) explains that the checklists can be used in two ways: (i) to review one's overall proficiency in a particular language prior to updating one's language passport at the beginning or end of an extended period of learning; and (ii) to monitor one's learning progress, perhaps in relation to a particular skill or skills.

The checklists can be used to plan the individual course of learning and to identify appropriate language goals.

The Cornell University German Studies Language Portfolio is based on extensive revisions of the curriculum and reflects the very unique circumstances and conditions under which students at Cornell University engage in their foreign language studies. It is a work in progress and an adaptation of both the Framework and Profile to suit the needs and qualities of Cornell students. As such it only proves how flexible and valuable a tool the European Framework for Languages is.

Language Portfolio - Department of German Studies, Cornell University Version

Use this checklist to record what you think you can do (Column 1). Ask someone else, for example your teacher, to also assess what they think you can do (Column 2). Use Column 3 to mark those things that you cannot yet do which you feel are important for you (Column 3 = Objectives). Add to the list – perhaps with your teacher – other things that you can do, or that are important for your language learning at this level.
