Benefits of becoming a Master Watershed Stewards

♦ Learn from leading experts about topics including watershed planning, volunteer watershed monitoring, hydrology, stormwater and floodplain management, green infrastructure, leadership and communication skills, and stakeholder involvement techniques

♦ Use your skills to implement a 40-hour MWS Project (team or individual) that benefits watershed in New York

♦ Receive technical support from a range of professionals on the design and implementation of your MWS Project

♦ Be recognized as a leader in watershed management

Cornell University Cooperative Extension

New York Master Watershed Steward Program in Onondaga County

For more information on:

♦ Watershed management

♦ Your local watersheds

♦ Time commitment

♦ Becoming a Master Watershed Steward

Contact us at jel264@cornell.edu

Visit our website:

www.NYWatershedSteward.org