Benefits of becoming a Master Watershed Stewards

- Learn from leading experts about topics including watershed planning, volunteer watershed monitoring, hydrology, stormwater and floodplain management, green infrastructure, leadership and communication skills, and stakeholder involvement techniques
- Use your skills to implement a 40-hour MWS Project (team or individual) that benefits watershed in New York
- Receive technical support from a range of professionals on the design and implementation of your MWS Project
- Be recognized as a leader in watershed management

For more information on:
- Watershed management
- Your local watersheds
- Time commitment
- Becoming a Master Watershed Steward

Contact us at mec26@cornell.edu

Visit our website:
www.NYWatershedSteward.org