The Biddy Martin Graduate Prize

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, & Transgender Studies Program announces a graduate prize for work on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, or queer studies. This award is given in honor of Biddy Martin, a strong supporter of the LGBT Studies Program at Cornell University.

Biddy Martin was elected the 19th president of Amherst College in June 2011. She had served as chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Madison since 2008 and as Cornell University’s provost from 2000 to 2008. A graduate of the College of William & Mary in Williamsburg, Va., where she majored in English literature and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Martin earned an M.A. in German literature from Middlebury College’s program in Mainz, Germany, and her Ph.D. in German literature, in 1985, from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Applications must include a cover sheet with:
- name
- address
- title of your submission
- net id
- student employee number and
- your submission without your name

Applications might include an essay, article, or dissertation chapter. All work must have been completed while a student at Cornell.

Deadline for applications: APRIL 11 in the LGBT Studies Office, 391 Uris Hall.

The winner of the Biddy Martin Graduate Award will be announced in May.

Info?  lgbtstudies@cornell.edu